

purchasing. All were in carriages, but in a day or two, after the first rush is over, the poorer laborers and rag-pickers will be seen starting out in parties of half a dozen, carrying in their hands some little trifles, purchased with the hard earnings of weeks, to place by the graves of the loved friends gone before.

We saw nothing of any priests, or any signs of regular religious ceremonies, and the occasion is probably looked upon by the Chinese in somewhat the same light as that in which the gay Parisians regard their annual visit to Pere La Chaise, and their decoration of the graves of their dead with flowers. The sight is altogether not an unpleasant one, nor one calculated to make us think less kindly of a people who show such veneration for their dead, grotesque, and, to us, outlandish as the demonstration in its particular form may be seen.

213 BARNES & CROWLEY, GEORGE W. BARNES, ST. ALBANS VT. I. J. CROWLEY.

DOCTOR OBED GRIDLEY,

That renowned and Celebrated Naturopathic Physician, who was very unexpectedly called from St. Albans to attend sickness in his family, will return on Monday, May 26th, and remain at the St. Albans Home until June 11th, for the Healing of the sick and afflicted. There is well authenticated information of very many remarkable cures having been performed by the Doctor, from those who have received his treatment. He has also at his command testimonials from many prominent, respectable and honorable citizens from this and the adjoining counties, testifying to his great method and skill of treating diseases. It is evident the Doctor possesses a great gift for treating diseases successfully. How and where he obtained such powers are as yet unknown, but the fact he has established. Every new case adds laurels to his high reputation. P. S. The Doctor further states that in future he hopes not to disappoint his friends, but will meet his engagement at the appointed time in St. Albans.
